

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

- Imaginative kin-making:
deconstructing the family, writing entanglements 1
Rossella Ciocca and Marta Cariello

ARTICLES

- “A little less than kin, and more than kind”:
kinship and motherhood in Shakespeare’s Henry V 9
Francesca Guidotti
- Oddkin* and alter families. ‘Staying with the trouble’ in
The Ministry of Utmost Happiness by Arundhati Roy 22
Rossella Ciocca
- On kinship and belonging: narrating and surviving in Zeyn Joukhadar’s The Thirty Names of Night 37
Marta Cariello
- Caring in the ‘thick present’: environmental crisis, ethics of interconnectedness and posthuman ecologies 50
in The Overstory by Richard Powers
Giuseppe de Riso
- Care and liberation in the Black Anthropocenes: apocalypses, justice and family abolition in N.K. Jemisin’s Broken Earth trilogy 63
and Cherie Dimaline’s Marrow Thieves series
Lucio De Capitani
- Extended kinship as a means of survivance within Indigenous literary futurism in “Legends are made, not born” by Métis author Cherie Dimaline 78
Alice Salion
- New technologies of re/production and a world beyond the family:
Tlotlo Tsamaase’s Womb City 91
Arianna Preite and Chiara Xausa
- Il pensiero eco-femminista di Haraway in scena. Intervista all’artista
Marta Cuscunà 111
Rossella Menna and Marta Cuscunà

REVIEWS

- Reworking identity on stage: a review of Fabulazione, o la rieducazione o la rieducazione di Undine 118
Federica Piron
- Riprendersi la vita. Uno sguardo etnografico sui processi sociali che danno forma e caratterizzano le occupazioni abitative 123
Enrico Fravega su Riprendersi la vita. Etnografia dell'Hotel Quattrostelle occupato tra bisogno e socialità di Osvaldo Costantini